

Sidescan sonar image

Figure 6

Sidescan sonar image of the study area with the 1-m bathymetric contours and the ridge crests. Low-backscatter on the sidescan image is represented by the dark tones and high-backscatter by the light tones. The aerial photograph of the land component of the image were scanned, orthophoto rectified, and merged with the sidescan imagery using the PCI software.

